Law Enforcement Week

Next week is National Law Enforcement Week. Each year we invite the police honor guard from the Two Rivers Police Department to our schools. We look forward to their visit next week and thank them for their service to our community!

4th grade students:

There will be a short meeting for all 4th grade parents about band at L.B. Clarke on Monday, May 22nd at 6:30 pm in the LBC cafeteria. We will discuss the 5th grade band program, rental programs and answer any questions you may have. Questions can be addressed to Brandon Meulbroek at 794-1614 or:

A Few Reminders

Summer Building Closure

Magee will be closed for construction projects starting on June 12th. School offices will be located at Koenig Elementary. Our phone, fax and email will be the best way to get a hold of us over the summer. We look forward to new bathrooms, new roof, new blacktop among other improvements.

Medication Pick Up

A reminder to any students who have medication here at school, parents will need to pick up any medications at the end of the school year. Please call 793-1118 to make arrangements.

Art Show Awards

Wednesday May 17th students that are receiving art awards will be recognized at the Lester Library at 6:15 PM. ALL students from Magee have art work on display at the library and can be viewed during regular library hours.

Student Medications

If your child takes any form of medication please make sure to fill out a form in the office. Students may not transport medications to and from school. Any questions, please call the school office.
