

Name: _____

Date: _____

Book Page Total: _____

One-Pager GENERAL Log Sheet

Title: _____

Author: _____

Date Started: _____

Date Complete: _____

Your rating of the book: (1-10): _____

You will do Part 1 or Part 2

Part 1: After Reading Directions for a Fictional Book

Directions: When you are finished reading your fictional book, please answer these questions on the back of your log sheet IN COMPLETE SENTENCES.

- 1) What is the title of your story and who is the author?
- 2) Identify the settings and time periods that happen throughout the story.
- 3) List the main characters and the supporting characters from your story. Make sure you label which character is which type.
- 4) Explain what your story's plot is.
- 5) Explain the introduction to the problem. How does the author introduce you as the reader to the central problem of their story?
- 6) What events happen before the turning point of the story?
- 7) Explain what the turning point is in the story. What happens in your story for the action to considerably change? How do you know? (This is called rising action)
- 8) What is the central problem resolution in your story? How do you know?
- 9) How is the story "wrapped up"? How does it end? (This is called denouement)
- 10) Explain who is telling the story.
- 11) What type of genre is your story and how do you know?
- 12) What is the overall mood & tone of your story?

Part 2: After Reading Directions for a Non-Fictional Book

Directions: When you are finished reading your non-fictional book, please answer the following prompt on the back of your log.

"What is your book about? Write a summary about your book. Your summary should be at least three paragraphs long and include the title and author of your book."

Essay Structure:

First paragraph = introduction and main idea about your book

Middle paragraph(s) = details of your non-fictional text and some things you have learned about

Final paragraph = summary about what you read about and how this has impacted your life as a reader