14. District Administrator's Report: Lisa Quistorf provided a summary of the first week of school where there was a very smooth transition. The first week of school students met Tuesday through Friday. Since March the administrative team has been continually revising and working on the best start to the school year. The plan we have in place is to keep everyone safe. The staff and students are extremely happy to be back in school. Students are doing a fantastic job wearing facemasks. If we stay healthy we can continue in school. Elementary students are separated by plexiglass on their tables. We are working with the Manitowoc County Health Department if anyone contracts COVID-19. Lisa thanked the Board for their support in our reopening plan. Jaimie Salta also thanked the staff for all of their extra effort. Upcoming events were announced.

15. Motion by Com. Veldre seconded by Com. Canty, to adjourn the meeting at 7:23 p.m.; motion carried unanimously.

Respectfully submitted,

Julie Schroeder
